1. Good citizenship as well as being respectful to teachers, officials and peers – no profanity, illegal tactics, etc – is expected. Personal accountability is paramount to success on and off the court.
   a. Do not show emotion at any call the referee or umpire makes. Coaches will speak to the referee, if necessary.
   b. Encourage teammates to improve, don’t yell at them or degrade them during practices or games.
2. You will be held responsible for your uniform and equipment. You will be required to pay for any lost or damaged items.
3. While involved in volleyball, you must be in attendance the entire school day (or have a Doctors note) to participate (practice & games).
4. All participants must have the following items in order to tryout:
   i. A current physical on file
   ii. Tryout check list
   iii. Volleyball Code of Conduct
   iv. Volleyball Information sheet
5. Absolutely no tolerance for use or possession of drugs, alcohol, or tobacco. If you are present at an activity where a MIP is issued you are subject to suspension from the team at Coach Bailey’s discretion. Understand that under-age drinking is a crime and as a team, we will not be part of criminal acts.
6. Be at all practices, games, and meetings on time prepared for the activity. *The following discipline options can be exercised at Coach Bailey’s discretion
   i. First offense: warning and one Five-by
   ii. Will not participate in next game
   iii. Off team
   b. An absence is excused only if a player is sick or has a family emergency and notifies one of the coaches in advance that they will not be at practice.
   c. An unexcused absence is anything else but sickness and family emergency.
   d. Any absence due to appointments (doctor, dentist, etc.) or other school activities must be discussed prior to absence. *The following discipline options can be exercised at Coach Bailey’s discretion
   i. First unexcused absences: Will not play the next game
   ii. Second unexcused absence: Off team

Road Trips
7. Be on time for all team meetings and departure.
8. Do not go anywhere without a coach knowing where you are going.
9. Any lack of self-discipline on the road (failure to properly represent T.H.S.) will result in disciplinary act at Coach Bailey’s discretion up to and including dismissal from the team.

Academics
10. You will not be asked to give up academic responsibilities for volleyball.
11. There will be random, mandatory grade checks
Code of Ethics for Parents and Players
12. Athletes and parents are all representatives of Timpview High School. Your demeanor and support reflects our standings.
13. Timpview will not tolerate hostile, aggressive confrontations between a parent, officials, coaches, or athletes. Violation of this policy may result in the athlete’s dismissal from the team.
14. Athletes and parents agree to use the Grievance Procedure to express concerns and identify issues. This communication process helps maintain individual confidentiality and team unit. Violation of this confidentiality may result in the dismissal of the athlete from the program.

Grievance Procedure Guidelines
The athlete is encouraged to talk to the coach when the athlete feels there is a problem. An athlete should approach her coach with her concerns following the grievance procedure. Every parent needs to know the appropriate communication process to express a concern during the season. A 24-hour cooling-down period is required and enforced before any grievance is reported. Confronting a coach before, during or after a practice or game will not be tolerated.

1. Athlete asks the coach at an appropriate time to discuss any issue
2. The coach has 24 hours to respond
3. Athlete and or parent/guardian and coach discuss problem
4. Schedule a meeting with A.D. and or Vice Principal/Principal
5. Meet with the Superintendent
6. Meet with the Board of Trustees

I hereby consent to the previously named student participating in the interscholastic athletic program at Timpview High School. This consent included travel to and from athletic contest and practice sessions. I further consent to treatment deemed necessary by physicals designed by school authorities for any illness or injury resulting from his or her athletic participation. I also consent to follow Code of ethics for athletes and parents as well as the grievance procedure.
